

The New Zealand Curriculum - The Key Competencies.

Please take the time to add your thoughts, ideas and feedback on the values below

The Key Competencies	Which are the most important 10 = most 1 = least	How would you describe this Key Competency	Your Comment about this Key Competency
Thinking - creative, critical and logical thinking, metacognition, self awareness and reflection
Participating and contributing - contributing to communities
Managing self - making decisions for yourself including goal setting and planning
Relating to others - the knowledge skills attitudes and values necessary for working and interacting with others.
Using language symbols and texts - discovering of meaning through the discovery of cue and clues

What do you think already happening for our students' learning that fits into the key competencies?

Other comments: